A. Introduction

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information in records held by public (government) or private (non-government) bodies that is required for the exercise of protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, Long Beach Capital is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released.

This manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act. It is important to note that the Act recognises certain limitations to the right of access to information, including, but not limited to, limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality, and effective, efficient and good governance, and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual is available for inspection, free of charge, at the physical address of Long Beach Capital recorded below.

B. PARTICULARS IN TERMS OF THE SECTION 51 MANUAL

5. Grounds for refusal of access to records

Long Beach Capital may refuse a request for information on the following basis:

- 5.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- 5.2 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
  - Trade secrets of that third party;
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and
  - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Long Beach Capital, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.

- 5.3 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement or legislation;
- 5.4 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- 5.5 Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- 5.6 The commercial activities of Long Beach Capital, which may include:
  - Trade secrets of Long Beach Capital;
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Long Beach Capital;
  - Information which, if disclosed, could put Long Beach Capital at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
  - A computer program which is owned by Long Beach Capital and which is protected by copyright.
- 5.7 The research information of Long Beach Capital or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;
- 5.8 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

6. Request procedure

- 6.1 A requester requiring access to information held by Long Beach Capital must complete the prescribed Form C annexed as "A" hereto.
- 6.2 Submit the completed form to the Head of Legal and Compliance at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address recorded in paragraph 2 of this manual and pay a request fee and a deposit, if applicable.
- 6.3 The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to at least enable the Long Beach Capital to identify:
  - The record or records requested;
  - The identity number of the requester;
  - The form of access required, if the request is granted;
  - The e-mail, postal address, or fax number of the requester.
- 6.4 The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right to be exercised or protected. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.
- 6.5 Long Beach Capital will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy Long Beach Capital that circumstances dictate that the above time periods could not be complied with.
- 6.6 The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he/she must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- 6.7 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of Long Beach Capital.
- 6.8 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 6.9 The requester must pay the prescribed fee if applicable, before any further processing can take place.

7. Access to records held by Long Beach Capital

Records held by Long Beach Capital may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of or held by Long Beach Capital. There are two types of requesters:

7.1 Personal requester

A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester. Long Beach Capital will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

7.2 Other requester

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, Long Beach Capital is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

8. Decision

8.1 Long Beach Capital will, within 30 day of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

8.2 The 30 day period with which Long Beach Capital has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Long Beach Capital and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. Long Beach Capital will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

9. Remedies available when Long Beach Capital refuses a request for information

9.1 Internal Remedies

Long Beach Capital does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision made by Long Beach Capital is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of Long Beach Capital will have to exercise external remedies at their disposal.

9.2 External Remedies

A requester or a third party, who is dissatisfied with Long Beach Capital's refusal to disclose information or the disclosed information may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status for relief.

10. Fees

10.1 The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

10.2 When the request is received by Long Beach Capital, the officer will by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request.

10.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, Long Beach Capital will notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the Access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

10.4 Long Beach Capital will withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in table below.

10.5 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.

10.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then Long Beach Capital will repay the deposit to the requester.

Reproduction Fees:

Where a private body has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question. [Refer to clause 3.2 of the manual].

The applicable fees for reproduction as referred to above are:

For every photocopy of an A4-size page or part thereof	1.25
For every printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof held on a computer or in electronic or machine- readable form	0.85

For a copy of an audio record	34.20

Request Fees:

Where a requester submits a request for access to information held by a private body on a person other than the requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R 50.00 is payable up-front before the private body will further process the request received.

Access Fees:

An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access t o information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specifically excluded in terms of the Act or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8).

The applicable access fees which will be payable are:

For every photocopy of an A4-size page or part thereof	1.25
For every printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof held on a computer or in electronic or machine- readable form	0.85

For a copy of an audio record	34.20
To search for and prepare the record for disclosure, R30,00 for each hour or part of an hour reasonably required for such search and preparation.
Where a copy of a record needs to be posted the actual postage fee is payable.

Deposits:

Where a private body receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester himself/herself and the information officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record for disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the requester.

Where a copy of a record needs to be posted the actual postage fee is payable.
